REFRAIN

PSALM 80:7-14

[Choir]

- 13 The wild boar of the ' forest has ' ravaged it, *
and the beasts of the ' field have ' grazed up'on it.
- 14 Turn now, O God of hosts, look down from heaven;
behold and ' tend this ' vine; *
preserve what ' your right ' hand has ' planted.

[Choir and Congregation]

Glory to the Father, and ' to the ' Son, *
and ' to the ' Holy ' Spirit:

As it was in the be'ginning, is now, *
and ' will be forever. A'men.

REFRAIN

PSALM 80:7-14

[Congregation]

7 Restore us, O ' God of ' hosts; *
show the light of your countenance,' and we ' shall be ' saved.

8 You have brought a ' vine out of ' Egypt; *
you cast ' out the ' nations and ' planted it.

[Choir]

9 You pre'pared the ' ground for it; *
it took ' root and ' filled the ' land.

10 The mountains were ' covered by its ' shadow *
and the towering ' cedar trees ' by its ' boughs.

[Congregation]

11 You stretched out its ' tendrils to the ' Sea *
and its ' branches ' to the ' River.

12 Why have you broken ' down its ' wall, *
so that all who pass ' by pluck ' off its ' grapes?

All Saint's and All Soul's Day

Praying for the departed appears in many places in our Book of Common Prayer. Although there is a weekly opportunity for remembering the dead in the Prayers of the People in the Holy Eucharist, our Prayer Book Calendar lists November 1st as All Saints' Day and November 2 as Commemoration of All Faithful Departed - All Souls Day.

Since our society allows less and less time for grief, the observance of these days are an important part of our pastoral care of the bereaved. We show our solidarity with one another and our love for those who have died, commending them in faith to God. We are in continuing fellowship with the faithful departed within the communion of saints and the unsearchable riches of Christ's passion applied to their existence and ours.

As we have done in previous years, the insert here in the Carillon as well as in our Sunday Bulletin has spaces for you to write in the first and last names of any departed you wish to be remembered aloud as part of the intercessions for the Burial of the Dead at our Holy Eucharist service on All Saints' Day, Saturday, November 1st at 8:00 a.m. during the Brotherhood of St. Andrew Mass. The names will also be reproduced in the Sunday bulletin on All Saints' Sunday, November 2nd.

You are welcome to submit names even if you are not present in the morning Holy Eucharist service on All Saint's Day. I invite you to put your completed inserts in the offering plate at a Sunday service or return it to the parish office by October 26th.

Meeting Topic: Aspects of Islam

Date/Time: October 24th, 3:00pm

Location: Upper Parish House (*note change in location)

Description: This is a discussion format where each participant chooses a book of personal interest on this topic which is in the news daily. We recommend looking up ISLAM on Wikipedia from Google, reading the article, finding an area of interest to you. You might use their extensive bibliography to find a book that fits your interest. Emma Clarke Library has a good collection of books on Islam, also.

To organize the discussion, when you have chosen a topic, call Karl Soderstrom at 751-7234 and he will create the order of the presentations.

We welcome ALL to what we believe is a timely discussion. Any questions, call Karl Soderstrom.

Save the Date!!!

Sunday, October 26th

Join us for our Annual Fall Stewardship Financial Response kick-off

5:00 p.m

Grief Support Group: Our next meeting will be Thursday, October 30th at 7:00pm. Anyone who has lost a loved one is cordially invited, even if your loss was years ago. Your attendance may be the spark to help someone else. We follow a basic structure and all sharing or discussions are held confidential. For additional information, please contact Cn. Richard at the parish office, or Don Muffly at 689-8804.

Foyer Group: One of the best ways of getting to really know a person is over a meal. Sharing what is going on in our life with interested others helps us realize how connected we truly are to one another. Caroline Church has Foyer Groups that nurture that experience. Foyer groups are a great way to socialize with members of our congregation. If you have not been in a Foyer Group, you are invited to put your name on the list. If you have been part of this experience, new groups will soon be forming. We will continue to encourage the group to invite one non-member of Caroline Church to be part of this experience while keeping the groups small and manageable. It is a great deal of fun and a nice way to connect with others. Please call Christine Oster at 368-8686 or e-mail Mirjana Ellis at rmellis@optonline.net

Caroline Cares Campus Ministry

We are getting ready to send out our Fall Care Packages to our students studying away from home. We will be packing our boxes on Sunday, November 9th at 4:00pm in the MCS building with our Youth Group. Our Wish List of supplies needed will be posted in the Coffee Room – watch for them each Sunday. We are so grateful for all the contributions we have received from our Parish Family over the past nine years, and hope you will continue to support this ministry to our young adults. They do so appreciate knowing that we are thinking of and praying for them. We encourage individuals and groups from our Caroline family to write a personal note and put it in the box next to collections.

Address updates, or new names can be sent to Eileen Hazell at ehazell@optonline.net. All donations should be labeled and brought to the MCS building as soon as you purchase them. Please consider being part of this ministry. If you have any questions please call Eileen at 751-2623 or Linda Sanders at 689-2588.
