ANNOUNCEMENTS

(deadline for articles are Wednesday by 5:00 pm)

We welcome Jaidyn Scott Attanasio into our Christian Family today as he receives the Sacrament of Baptism. Let us uphold him and guide him towards God's great love for him.

Parish House Home Bible Study: Our next meeting is Monday, September 26th in the "upper room" of the Parish House. Get together time is 7:00pm and the study begins promptly at 7:30pm. We will be studying the Book of Mark, chapter 2. Please join us when you can.

New Thursday Offering: Our traditional Thursday Holy Eucharist has moved to a new time slot and will be followed with a new opportunity for discussion and formation. The service will begin at 12:30pm, which includes a special litany and prayers for healing. Following the service, from about 1:15pm until 2:00pm, Father Richard and Mother Ann will take turns offering a clergy forum on various and sundry topics of interest. Each conversation may continue over the course of one to three weeks, as needed, and everyone is welcome at any and all sessions regardless of previous attendance. We will be meeting in the Upper Room of the Parish House. We hope to see you there!

The Anglican Communion Covenant

As you are aware, The Episcopal Church (TEC) is part of the worldwide Anglican Communion. That communion comprises more than 85 million members in 44 regional and national member churches around the globe in more than 160 countries. How do we maintain communion in this family of churches? It has been proposed that a formal document outlining our understandings be drafted, studied and adopted by the current membership. It is hoped that such Covenant will allow the Communion to order its common life to witness first and foremost to the biblical commands of charity and unity.

Since December of 2009, all Anglican Provinces began a process of discernment about whether or not they should adopt the Anglican Communion Covenant. The Episcopal Church (TEC) is currently engaged in that process of exploring what the Covenant says and may formally vote on accepting this covenant at the General Convention of our church next summer.

We will continue our discussion on this Anglican Covenant on September 27th at 7:30 p.m. in the MCS building. All parishioners are encouraged to attend and share their insights on this very fundamental aspect of our Anglican identity. The diocese and the national church would like as much input as possible to help inform the General Convention delegates during decision time. RDV

Foyer Group

SUPPERS

What is a Foyer Group? The French word foyer means a hearth or fire-side. Foyer “group” then suggests a small group of friends, relaxed and open to one another. In brief, those who join the Foyer Group are formed (at random) into groups of eight to ten people who meet about once a month for a simple meal and relaxed conversation in the homes of its members. The gatherings last from two to two and a half hours. New groups form each fall. All groups from Caroline Church meet together for a joint pot-luck meal once during the season, usually in February or March. A foyer group is not a study or a prayer group, and never, on any account, has it an agenda. It is open to everyone, regardless of age or marital status. Its purpose is to allow members to come together in small groups to offer each other companionship, fellowship, and a sense of community in our larger church family. Won’t you join us?

We start a new season this month and would like to get to know you. We will have the ‘sign up’ for our new Foyer Groups during the month of September at Coffee Hour, or you may call Barbara Delfyett at 751-3658 or Elizabeth Greaf at 689-5604.
